THE American sports car

No sports car is more American than the Chevy Corvette. Since the inception of this car in the 60s the Corvette has inspired excitement on the track and on the roads. The list of accomplishments for the racing Corvettes is long, from victories the European GT Series races for more than a decade to a new start with the C7.R. The Corvette Race set gives you the chance to race both the new C7.R and the championship winning C6R together. The digital 'Corvette Racers' set with big size tracks and 1:32 scale cars offers outstanding slotcar racing! Lane-changing, tactical passing and races involving up to 6 cars on the 24.93 ft. racetrack guarantee a real race feeling at home!

The Pony Cars are back!

The Mustang has been racing from the first year it was made in Detroit. The small, lightweight American car enjoyed instant success, both in the US and internationally. Back then, in the SCCA and Trans Am, and today as a vintage racer, the Mustang has always been a winner. The short wheelbase coupled with Ford V8 power was a winning combination back then, just as it is now on your slot track. A matched pair of fastback Mustangs gives you optimized performance for head-to-head racing.

The 1:32 scale digital 'Ford Fastbacks' set with big tracks and cars guarantees outstanding slotcar racing! Lane-changing, tactical passing and races involving up to 6 cars on the 30.51 ft. racetrack guarantee a real racetrack atmosphere at home!

Who'll be kicking up the dust?

The race of the American Ford Torino Talladega classics is sure to kick up dust. Behind the wheel of the Ford Torino No.34 is the pioneering, highly successful Wendell Scott, the first ever Afro-American on the motor racing circuit. His challenger is Benny 'BP' Parsons in the Ford Torino No.98. In the United States, after a professional career of over 500 races, BP established his reputation as a Nascar commentator and reporter. These old hands are both determined to live up to their reputations.

An evenly-matched race

The Mercedes team with two top drivers, Hamilton and Rosberg, knows how to win Formula 1 grand prix. No wonder, the current car has the Midas touch. However, Ferrari is also on the track with one of the most reliable cars in the sport. The accelerators on the controllers are almost always pressed right down, so there are no breaks for the drivers, certainly not in the tight ‚Südkurve‘ bend. Whoever is ahead on the long straight has an advantage, but that can change instantly in the loop. A battle of nerves is guaranteed, right up to the chequered flag.
